

June is Black Music Month

During Black Music Appreciation Month, we honor the innovative artists whose musical expressions move us, brighten our daily lives, and bring us together. Across the generations, Black music has pioneered the way we listen to music while preserving Black cultural traditions and sharing the unique experiences of the Black community. Black artists have dramatically influenced what we all hear and feel through music — joy and sadness, love and loss, pride and purpose.

-President Joe Biden

Black Music Month Playlists

Black Artists to Watch in 2021

Read this months blogs.

Do something this month to support and/or embrace Black Music!

XOXO, AEB.

SIP. READ. SHOP. HEAL.

www.aeboniebron.com